To whom it may concern,

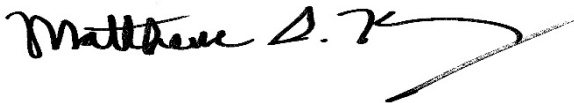

Please accept this Letter of Recommendation on behalf of Andrew Gerber. I have worked with Andrew for the better part of four years as both a colleague and in a supervisory role. He has many talents and will add value to any organization he is a part of.

Andrew has been an integral part of our production team at CMU Athletics. He has done it all during his time with us, between live events, highlights and feature content. As he became older and more experienced, he rose into a leadership position, where he helps to manage and train other students on our crew. His knowledge and experience have been invaluable in our ability to continue to produce high level content. We trust Andrew with responsibility regularly and he is able to work very well with limited oversight.

Andrew possesses a wide range of skills. He has done many different jobs on our live events, including directing many live broadcasts, running graphics, replay and serving as Time Out Coordinator on our ESPN3 productions. His leadership in the control room during the broadcasts is crucial to keep the entire show running smoothly. On top of his work on the live events, Andrew's greatest strength is his post-production work for us. He regularly shoots, produces and edits a wide variety of digital content for us. He is a self-starter, capable of handling entire projects from start to finish. In the fall, he edited several episodes of our post game football show, Chippewa Rewind, which is viewed by our fans all across the country on social media. He possesses a can-do attitude, and is always willing to assist in any way he can, no matter how big or small the task is. That attitude and work ethic sets a tremendous example for fellow students.

I hope that this letter will aide in your consideration of Andrew. I am confident that he will be a positive addition to your team should you choose to move forward with him. If you have any questions or concerns about anything expressed above, please don't hesitate to contact me. I am happy to speak on Andrew's behalf. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
